Project task: Explore Initiation Ceremonies from one of the six major world religions (Hinduism, Judaism, Christianity, Islam, Sikhism, Buddhism). Create a presentation in the form of poster, brochure, portfolio, or PowerPoint.

In your project:
You should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Identify what an Initiation Ceremony is; define it. • Create a presentation, which includes them from one religion, from birth to death. • Include pictures and description of what happens and what they mean. 	You could: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Describe the thoughts and feelings of one going through an Initiation Ceremony. • Explain how it may change his/her life. And whether it is needed. • Identify some Initiation Ceremonies you have participated in, (religious or non-religious) and their affect upon you.

Learning Levels: Use the Learning Levels below to help you see what you should be aiming to achieve.

LL 5	My presentation is very detailed. It contains an accurate description of most of the religious Initiation Ceremonies from my chosen religion (birth to death). I have explained what they mean. I have included my own opinions about how it could or would be life changing for the individual involved. I have thoughtfully considered my own Initiation Ceremonies and what they have meant to me.
LL 4	My presentation is quite detailed. I have included a good balance of pictures and information. I have included much factual information of what happens and what they mean. I have explained whether or not I think Initiation Ceremonies are necessary in modern times.
LL 3	My presentation contains detailed facts along with pictures. I have included information about each ceremony and its affect on those involved.
LL 2	I have included several pictures, along with facts about several ceremonies and how they are celebrated.
LL 1	I have produced a collage of pictures of ceremonies. It includes at least a brief written description of what they mean.
